A HOME FOR RESPECT – Würth Industrie Service as the proud sponsor of the INVICTUS GAMES DÜSSELDORF 2023

Bad Mergentheim/Düsseldorf. An idea that inspires people: The Invictus Games, started in 2014 by Prince Harry, The Duke of Sussex, will take place from 9th to 16th September 2023 in Düsseldorf. This is the first time that the Games are being held in Germany. The focus here is on offering social recognition to wounded, injured and ill soldiers as well as on their recovery and rehabilitation. As an independent subsidiary of the Würth Group, Würth Industrie Service GmbH & Co. KG is proud to be able to sponsor the international sports festival. With the 6th Invictus Games, the city of Düsseldorf along with the German Federal Armed Forces will welcome around 500 participants from 22 nations, who will compete in ten disciplines as well as around 1,000 family members and friends.

“It is a matter of great honour and special interest for us to support this year’s Invictus Games in Düsseldorf as this year’s sponsor. The aim behind the Games is to leverage the power of sports to contribute to the recovery and rehabilitation of the participating soldiers, while simultaneously creating a broader understanding as well as recognition and respect in the society for those affected. This makes it quite clear that the Invictus Games are much more than just an international sports event”, says Martin Jauss, General Manager of Würth Industrie Service.

Social commitment and Würth – they go hand in hand!

Social and cultural commitment has always been an integral part of the corporate culture of the Würth Group. The family business cares deeply about actively promoting charitable institutions and supporting a wide range of projects in the fields of art and culture, research and science as well as education and training. To think about each other, to be there for one another – these are principles that Carmen Würth in particular has always lived by. This is also reflected in the corporate culture that she has shaped alongside her husband Reinhold Würth, as well as in her lifelong social commitment. Being a role model and taking on responsibility - the employees of Würth Industrie Service also know what it means to show solidarity. Above all: #better together.
